The erasure and destruction shall be documented.

Article 25b. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) The data controller and processor shall notify the Commission of the full name, the personal identification number or the foreigner personal number or another similar identifier, and of the contact details of the data protection officer, as well as of any ensuing changes. The form and content of the notification and the procedure for the submission of the said notification shall be determined by the Rules of Procedure pursuant Article 9 (2).

Article 25c. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) The processing of the data of a data subject who is under the age of 14 years based on consent within the meaning of point 11 of Article 4 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, including the cases where information society services are offered directly within the meaning of Article 1 (3) of the Electronic Commerce Act, shall be lawful only if that consent of a parent with parental rights or by a legal guardian is given.

Article 25d. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) A data controller or processor may copy an identity document, a motor vehicle driving licence or a residence document only if this is laid down in a law.

Article 25e. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The data controller or processor shall adopt and apply rules for large scale personal data processing or for a large scale systematic monitoring of publicly accessible areas, including video surveillance, if the controller or processor implements appropriate technical and organisational measures for safeguarding the rights and freedoms of data subjects. The rules on large scale systematic monitoring of publicly accessible areas shall state the legal grounds for setting up a monitoring system, its scope and means, storage period of the information records and their erasure, the individuals' right of access, the provision of information to the public about the monitoring, as well as restrictions with regard to the access of third parties.

(2) The Commission shall issue guidelines to data controllers and processors for the performance of the obligation under Paragraph (1) and shall publish them on its Internet site.

Article 25f. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) A data controller or processor may process personal data of deceased persons only if there is a legal basis for this. In such cases, the data controller or processor shall take the appropriate measures so that the rights and freedoms of others or a public interest would not be adversely affected.

(2) (Suppl. - SG 11/23, in force from 04.05.2023) The Administrator shall provide, upon request, access to the personal data of a deceased person, including a copy thereof, to his heirs or other persons with legal interest, within the terms under Art. 12, paragraphs 3 and 4, and under the terms of paragraphs 5 and 6 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, unless otherwise provided by law.

Article 25g. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) Free public access to any information containing a personal identification number or a foreigner personal number shall not be provided unless otherwise foreseen in law.

(2) Controllers providing services by electronic means shall take appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure that the personal identification number or the foreigner personal number is not the only means of identifying the user when remote access to the service is provided.

(3) In order to provide administrative services by electronic means under the conditions of the Electronic Governance Act, the controller shall make it possible for the data subject to identify himself or herself following a procedure envisaged in law.

Article 25h. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The processing of personal data for journalistic purposes and for the purposes of academic, artistic or literary expression shall be lawful when carried out on the ground of freedom of expression and the right to information while simultaneously respecting privacy.

(2) (Declared unconstitutional with Decision of the Constitutional Court No 8 of 2019 – SG 93 of 2019) In case of disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available the personal data collected for the purposes under paragraph (1), the balance between the freedom of expression and the right to information and the right of personal data protection shall be evaluated on the basis of the following criteria, if relevant:

1. nature of the personal data;
2. the impact that the disclosure of the personal data or the publishing of the data would have on the data subject's privacy and reputation;
3. the circumstances under which the personal data became known to the controller;
4. the character and nature of the statement under which the rights referred to in paragraph (1) are exercised;
5. the significance of the disclosure of personal data or the publishing of the data for the clarification of a matter of public interest;
6. taking into consideration whether the data subject occupies position under Article 6 of the Counter-Corruption and Unlawfully Acquired Assets Forfeiture Act or is a person who, because of his activity and public status enjoys lesser protection of his privacy, or whose actions impact the society;
7. taking into consideration whether the data subject has contributed with his actions for the disclosure of his personal data and/or of information about his private and family life;
8. the purpose, content, form and consequence of the statement when the rights pursuant paragraph (1) are exercised;
9. the compliance of the statement for exercising the rights paragraph (1) with the fundamental rights of citizens;
10. other circumstances relevant to the case.

(3) Where personal data are processed for the purposes of paragraph (1):

1. Articles 6, 9, 10, 30, 34 and Chapter V of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, as well as Article 25c, shall not apply;

2. the data controller or processor may deny the data subjects, fully or partially the exercise of the rights pursuant Articles 12 to 21 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

(4) The exercise of the powers of the Commission pursuant to Article 58 (1) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 shall not affect the secrecy of information sources.

(5) Where personal data are processed for the purposes of creating a photographic or audio-visual work by means of capturing the image of a person in the course of the public activity or in a public place, Article 6, Articles 12 to 21, and Articles 30 to 34 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 shall not apply.

Article 25i. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) Any employer or appointing authority, in the capacity of data controller, shall adopt rules and procedures for:

1. use of an infringements reporting system;
2. restrictions on the use of internal company resources;
3. implementation of control system for access, working time and discipline.

(2) The rules and procedures referred to in Paragraph (1) shall contain information relating to the scope, obligations and methods for its practical application. These shall take into consideration the activity of the employer or appointing authority and the related nature of work and may not restrict the rights of data subjects pursuant Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and pursuant this Act.

(3) Employees and workers shall be informed of the rules and procedures referred to in Paragraph (1).

Article 25j. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) Any appointing authority, in the capacity of data controller, shall determine a storage period for the personal data of candidates in staff selection procedures which may not be longer than six months, unless the applicant has given consent for a longer period of storage. When the period of time expires, the employer or appointing authority shall erase or destroy the documents containing personal data unless otherwise provided for by a special law.

(2) Where in a staff selection procedure under Paragraph (1) the employer or appointing authority has required the submission of originals or copies certified by a notary, ascertaining the physical and mental fitness of the applicant, the required qualification degree and experience for the position held, the employer or authority shall return the documents to the data subject who has not been approved for appointment within six months of the completion of the selection procedure unless otherwise provided for by a special law.

Article 25k. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) The processing of personal data for the purposes of the National Archive Funds of the Republic of Bulgaria shall be processing in the public interest. Articles 15, 16, 18, 19, 20 and 21 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 shall not apply in such cases.

Article 25l. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) Where personal data is processed for statistical purposes, Articles 15, 16, 18 and 21 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 shall not apply.

Article 25m. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) Personal data originally collected for a different purpose may be processed for the purposes of the National Archive Funds, for scientific, for historical research or for statistical purposes. In such cases, the controller shall apply appropriate technical and organisational measures in order to safeguard the rights and freedoms of the data subject in accordance with Article 89 (1) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

Article 25n. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) The processing of personal data for humanitarian purposes by public bodies or humanitarian organisations, as well as the processing in cases of disaster within the meaning of the Disaster Protection Act, shall be lawful. Articles 12 to 21 and Article 34 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 shall not apply in this case.

EXERCISE OF DATA SUBJECT RIGHTS. REMEDIES (HEADING AMENDED, SG No 17 OF 2019)

Article 37a. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The data controller or processor may deny the data subjects the exercise, wholly or partially, of the rights pursuant Articles 12 to 21 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and may not perform the obligation pursuant Article 34 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 where the exercise of the rights or the performance of the obligation would result in a risk to:

1. national security;
2. defence;
3. public order and security;
4. the prevention, investigation, detection or prosecution of criminal offences or the enforcement of criminal penalties, including the safeguarding and the prevention of threats to public security;
5. other important objectives of general public interest, in particular an important economic or financial interest, including monetary, budgetary and taxation matters, public health and social security;
6. the safeguarding of judicial independence and judicial proceedings;
7. the prevention, investigation, detection and prosecution of breaches of codes of ethics for specifically regulated professions;
8. the protection of the data subject or the rights and freedoms of others;
9. the enforcement of civil law claims.

(2) The conditions and procedure for the application of Paragraph (1) shall be established by law and in accordance with Article 23 (2) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

Article 37b. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The data subject shall exercise the rights pursuant Articles 15 to 22 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 by submitting a written application to the data controller or by another method determined by the controller.

(2) Alternatively, an application may be submitted by electronic means under the conditions of the Electronic Document and Electronic Trust Services Act, the Electronic Signature Act, the Electronic Governance Act and the Electronic Commerce Act.

(3) Alternatively, an application may be submitted by accessing the user interface of the data processing information system after the person has identified himself or herself by the means of identification, relevant to the information system.

Article 37c. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) The application pursuant to Article 37b shall contain:

1. name, address, personal identification number or foreigner personal number or another similar identifier, of other data determined by the controller identifying the natural person, in relation to his/her activity;
2. description of the request;
3. preferred form in which information is to be received for the exercise of the rights under Articles 15 to 22 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679;
4. signature, date of submission of the application and address for correspondence.

(2) Where an application is submitted by an authorised person, the power of attorney shall be attached to the application.

Article 38. (1) (Amended, SG No 103 of 2005, amended, SG No 91 of 2006, amended, SG No 17 of 2019) In cases of infringement of his/her rights pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and this Act, the data subject shall have the right to bring the infringement before Commission within six months after having become aware of the infringement but no later than two years after.

(2) (New, SG No 17 of 2019) The Commission shall inform the complainant of the progress of the complaint or of the result within three months after the infringement has been brought to the attention of the Commission.

(3) (Amended, SG No 103 of 2005, renumbered from Paragraph (2), amended, SG No 17 of 2019) The Commission shall issue a decision and may apply the measures referred to in points (a) to (h) and (j) of Article 58 (2) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 or in Items 3, 4 and 5 of Article 80 (1) and, in addition to or instead of them, the Commission may impose an administrative fine in accordance with Article 83 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and under Chapter Nine.

(4) (New, SG No 17 of 2019) Where the complaint is obviously unfounded or excessive, the Commission may adopt a decision to dismiss the complaint.

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph (4), amended, SG No 17 of 2019) The Commission shall send a copy of the decision to the data subject as well.

(6) (New, SG No 91 of 2006, renumbered from Paragraph (5), amended, SG No 17 of 2019) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (1), where personal data is processed for the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1), the decision of the Commission shall contain only a finding about the lawfulness of the processing.

(7) (New - SG 11/23, in force from 04.05.2023) Complaint under Para. 1 may be withdrawn until the expiry of the period for appealing the decision of the Commission under Para. 3 and 4.

(8) Amend. - SG, 103/05, previous Para. 5 - SG, 91/06, amend. - SG, 39/11, previous Para. 6, amend. - SG, 17/19, previous Para. 7 - SG 11/23, in force from 04.05.2023) The decision of the Commission pursuant Paragraphs (3) and (4) is a subject of appeal pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Code within 14 days of receipt.

Article 38a. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The complaint to the Commission may be submitted by a letter, fax or by electronic means under the procedure of the Electronic Document and Electronic Trust Services Act.

(2) No action shall be taken on anonymous complaints and on complaints which are not signed by the complainant or by a legal or authorised representative.

Article 38b. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) By any infringement of the rights under Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and under this Act with the processing of personal data by the court when acting in the judicial capacity and by the prosecution and the investigating authorities when acting in the judicial capacity for the purposes of the prevention, investigation, detection or prosecution of criminal offences or the execution of criminal penalties, the data subject shall have the right to submit a complaint to the Inspectorate within six months after becoming aware of the infringement but not later than two years after the infringement.

(2) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (1), Article 38a shall apply, mutatis mutandis.

Article 38c. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The complaint pursuant Article 38b (1) shall be examined by an inspector designated by the Inspector General on the basis of the random selection principle.

(2) Data relevant to the alleged infringement shall be collected when handling the complaint, including information from the data controller or processor.

(3) The complainant shall be informed of the progress of the complaint or of its result within three months after the infringement has been brought to the attention of the Inspectorate.

(4) Where the complaint is unfounded, the inspector shall give his or her decision which could be appealed pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Code within 14 days of reception of the decision.

(5) Where the complaint is founded, the Inspectorate shall issue a decision on a proposal by the inspector. The decision could be appealed pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Code within 14 days of reception of the decision.

(6) Where the complaint is unfounded or excessive, the inspector may dismiss it.

Article 38d. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) Where an infringement of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 is ascertained in proceedings under Article 38c, depending on the nature and extent of the infringement, the measures referred to in points (a) to (g) and (j) of Article 58 (2) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 or in Items 3, 4 and 5 of Article 80 (1) shall be applied or administrative fines shall be imposed in accordance with Article 83 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and under Chapter Nine.

(2) The measures referred to in points (a) to (g) and (j) of Article 58 (2) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and in Items 3, 4 and 5 of Article 80 (1) shall be applied by a decision of the Inspectorate on a proposal by the inspector who examined the complaint under Article 38b (1).

Article 39. (1) (Amended, SG No 103 of 2005, amended, SG No 30 of 2006, in force as from 1 March 2007, amended, SG No 91 of 2006, amended, SG No 17 of 2019) Upon any infringement of the rights pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and pursuant to this Act, the data subject may appeal against any actions or acts of the data controller and processor before the court pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Code.

(2) (Amended, SG No 103 of 2005, amended and supplemented, SG No 17 of 2019) In the proceedings under Paragraph (1), the data subject may claim compensation for the damage suffered as a result of an unlawful processing of personal data from the data controller or processor.

(3) (New, SG No 81 of 2011, repealed, SG No 17 of 2019).

(4) (New, SG No 103 of 2005, renumbered from Paragraph (3), SG No 81 of 2011, amended, SG No 17 of 2019) The data subject may not bring a violation to the attention of the court if proceedings on the same infringement are pending before the Commission or a decision of the Commission regarding the same infringement has been appealed and there is no enforceable judgment of the court. At the request of the data subject, the Commission shall certify the lack of proceedings pending before it on the same dispute.

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph (4), amended, SG No 103 of 2005, amended, SG No 30 of 2006, in force as from 12 July 2006, repealed, SG No 91 of 2006, new, SG No 17 of 2019) Paragraph (4) shall apply on any proceedings pending before the Inspectorate.

Article 40. (Repealed, SG No 103 of 2005, new, SG No 17 of 2019) Where the decision referred to in Article 38 (3) has been adopted to implement a binding decision of the European Data Protection Board, Articles 263 and 267 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union shall apply accordingly.

Article 41. (Repealed, SG No 103 of 2005).

Chapter Eight

RULES ON PROTECTION OF NATURAL PERSONS WITH REGARD TO PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA BY COMPETENT AUTHORITIES FOR PURPOSES OF PREVENTION, INVESTIGATION, DETECTION OR PROSECUTION OF CRIMINAL OFFENCES OR EXECUTION OF CRIMINAL PENALTIES, INCLUDING SAFEGUARDING AGAINST AND PREVENTION OF THREATS TO PUBLIC ORDER AND SECURITY (TITLE, AMEND. – SG, 17/19)

Section I

General Provisions (New, SG No 17 of 2019)

Article 42. (Amended, SG No 103 of 2005, amended, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The rules of this Chapter shall apply upon the processing of personal data by competent authorities for the purposes of the prevention, investigation, detection or prosecution of criminal offences or the execution of criminal penalties, including the safeguarding against, and the prevention of, threats to public order and security.

(2) Personal data collected for the purposes referred to in Paragraph (1) shall not be processed for any other purposes unless otherwise provided for by Union law or by the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria.

(3) Where the competent authorities under Paragraph (1) process personal data for any purposes other than those under Paragraph (1), as well as in the cases referred to in Paragraph (2), Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and the respective provisions of this Act which introduce measures for the application of the said Regulation shall apply.

(4) Competent authorities under Paragraph (1) shall be the public authorities vested with powers to prevent, investigate, detect or prosecute criminal offences or to execute criminal penalties, including to safeguard against and prevent threats to public security.

(5) Unless otherwise provided for by a law, controller within the meaning of this Chapter with regard to the processing of personal data for the purposes under Paragraph (1) shall be a competent authority referred to in Paragraph (4) or the relevant administrative structure the said authority is a part, which independently or jointly with other authorities determine the purposes and the means of processing personal data.

Article 42a. (New, SG No 103 of 2005, repealed, SG No 17 of 2019).

Article 43. (Amended, SG No 103 of 2005, amended, SG No 17 of 2019) The rules of this Chapter shall apply to the processing of personal data wholly or partly by automated means and to the processing other than by automated means of personal data which form part of a filing system or are intended to form part of any such system.

Article 44. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) The exchange of personal data between the competent authorities of the Member States of the European Union, where such exchange is required by Union law or the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria, shall neither be restricted nor prohibited for reasons connected with the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data.

Article 45. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) Upon the processing of personal data for the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1), the personal data must be:

1. processed lawfully and fairly;
2. collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes;
3. adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which the data are processed;
4. accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date; every requisite step must be taken to ensure that personal data that are inaccurate, having regard to the purposes for which they are processed, are erased or rectified without delay;
5. kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the said data are processed;
6. processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, using appropriate technical or organisational measures.

(2) Processing of personal data by a controller which originally collected the said data or by another controller for any of the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1) other than the purpose for which the said data have been originally collected shall be allowed provided that:

1. the controller is empowered to process personal data for any such purpose in accordance with Union law or the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria, and

2. the processing is necessary and proportionate to that different purpose in accordance with Union law or with the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria.

(3) The processing by a controller under Paragraph (2) may include archiving in the public interest, scientific, statistical or historical use of the data for the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1) while applying appropriate safeguards for the rights and freedoms of data subjects.

(4) The controller shall be responsible for, and be able to demonstrate compliance with, Paragraphs (1), (2) and (3).

Article 46. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) Where the time limits for the erasure of personal data or for a periodic review of the need for the storage are not statutorily established, the said time limits shall be established by the controller.

(2) The carrying out of a periodic review under Paragraph (1) shall be documented, and the decision to extend the storage of the data shall be reasoned.

Article 47. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) The controller, where applicable and as far as possible, shall make a clear distinction between personal data of different categories of data subjects, such as:

1. persons with regard to whom there are serious grounds for believing that they have committed or are about to commit a criminal offence;

2. persons convicted of a criminal offence;

3. victims of a criminal offence, or persons with regard to whom certain facts give rise to reasons for believing that he or she could be the victim of a criminal offence; and

4. other parties to a criminal offence, such as persons who might be called on to testify in investigations in connection with criminal offences or subsequent criminal proceedings, persons who can provide information on criminal offences, or contacts.

Article 48. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The competent authority shall, as far as possible, distinguish personal data based on facts from personal data based on personal assessments.

(2) The competent authority shall take the requisite steps that personal data which are inaccurate, incomplete or no longer up to date are not transmitted. To that end, each competent authority shall, as far as practicable, verify the quality of personal data before they are transmitted. As far as possible, in all transmissions of personal data, necessary information enabling the receiving competent authority to assess the degree of accuracy, completeness and reliability of personal data, and the extent to which they are up to date shall be added.

(3) Where the transmitted personal data are incorrect or have been unlawfully transmitted, the recipient shall be notified without delay. In such a case, the transmitting competent authority and the recipient shall rectify, erase or restrict the processing of the personal data.

Article 49. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) The processing of personal data shall be lawful where necessary for the exercise of powers by a competent authority for the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1) and where provided for in Union law or in a statutory instrument which defines the purposes of the processing and the categories of personal data which are processed.

Article 50. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) Where Union law or the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria applicable to the transmitting competent authority provides specific conditions for processing of personal data, the authority shall inform the recipient of such personal data of those conditions and the obligation of the said recipient to comply with the said conditions.

(2) Personal data shall be transmitted to recipients in other Member States of the European Union, or to agencies, offices and bodies of the European Union established pursuant to Chapters 4 and 5 of Title V of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union under the same conditions which are applicable to similar transmissions within the Republic of Bulgaria.

Article 51. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) Processing of personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation shall be allowed where this is strictly necessary, there are appropriate safeguards for the rights and freedoms of the data subject, and is provided for in Union law or in the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria.

(2) Where processing under Paragraph (1) is not provided for in Union law or in the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria, the data referred to in Paragraph (1) may be processed where this is strictly necessary, there are appropriate safeguards for the rights and freedoms of the data subject, and:

1. the processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person, or
2. if the processing relates to data which are manifestly made public by the data subject.

(3) Suitable measures and safeguards for non-discrimination against natural persons shall be put in place where data are processed under Paragraph (1).

Article 52. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) Any decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces an adverse legal effect concerning the data subject or significantly affects him or her, shall be prohibited unless this is provided for in Union law or in the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria and appropriate safeguards are provided for the rights and freedoms of the data subject, at least the right to obtain human intervention when the controller makes the decision concerned.

(2) Decisions referred to in Paragraph (1) may not be based on the categories of personal data referred to in Article 51 (1), unless suitable measures to safeguard the rights and freedoms and legitimate interests of the data subject are in place.

(3) In the cases under Paragraphs (1) and (2), the controller shall carry out an impact assessment under Article 64.

(4) Profiling that results in discrimination against natural persons on the basis of the categories of personal data referred to in Article 51 (1) shall be prohibited.

(5) The data subject shall have the right to obtain information on the processing referred to in Paragraph (1), to express his or her point of view, and to contest the decision.

Section II

Data Subject Rights (New, SG No 17 of 2019)

Article 53. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The controller shall take the requisite steps to provide any information referred to in Article 54 and make any communication with regard to Article 52 (5) and Articles 55 to 58 and 68 relating to processing of personal data to the data subject in a concise, intelligible and easily accessible form, using clear and plain language. The controller shall provide the information in the same form as the request. Where this is impossible or would involve disproportionate efforts, the information shall be provided by other appropriate means, including by electronic means.

(2) The controller shall facilitate the exercise of data subject rights under Article 52 (5) and Articles 55 to 58.

(3) The controller shall reply to the request of the data subject or shall inform the said subject in writing of the action taken on the request within two months of receipt of the request. That period may be extended by one further month where necessary, taking into account the complexity and number of the requests.

(4) Information under Article 54 and any communications or any actions taken under Article 52 (5), Articles 55 to 58 and 68 shall be provided free of charge. Where requests from a particular data subject are manifestly unfounded or excessive, in particular because of their repetitive character, the controller may:

1. charge a fee in an amount which takes into account the administrative costs of providing information or communication with the data subject or taking the action requested, or

2. refuse to act on the request.

(5) The controller shall bear the burden of demonstrating the manifestly unfounded or excessive character of the request.

(6) Where the controller has reasonable doubts concerning the identity of the natural person making a request referred to in Article 55 or 56, the controller may request the provision of additional information necessary to confirm the identity of the data subject. The period referred to in Paragraph (3) shall begin to run from the receipt of that additional information.

Article 54. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The controller shall make available to the data subject at least the following information:

1. the identity and the contact details of the controller;
2. the contact details of the data protection officer, where applicable;
3. the purposes for which the personal data are processed;
4. the right to lodge a complaint with the Commission or, respectively, with the Inspectorate and the contact details;

5. the right to request from the controller access to and rectification, completion or erasure of personal data and restriction of processing of the personal data concerning the data subject;

6. the possibility, in the event of refusal under Paragraph (3), under Article 55 (3) and (4) and Article 56 (6) and (7), to exercise the rights through the Commission or, respectively, through the Inspectorate.

(2) In addition to the information referred to in Paragraph (1), at the request of the data subject or on its own initiative the controller shall give to the data subject, in specific cases, the following further information to enable the exercise of his or her rights:

1. the legal basis for the processing;
2. the period for which the personal data will be stored, or, where that is not possible, the criteria used to determine that period;
3. where applicable, the recipients or the categories of recipients of the personal data, including in third countries or international organisations;
4. where necessary, further information, in particular where the personal data are collected without the knowledge of the data subject.

(3) The controller may delay or refuse, in whole or in part, the provision of the information referred to in Paragraph (2), where this is necessary in order to:

1. avoid obstructing official or legal checks, investigations or procedures;
2. avoid prejudicing the prevention, detection, investigation or prosecution of criminal offences or the execution of criminal penalties;
3. protect public order and security;
4. protect national security;
5. protect the rights and freedoms of others.

(4) When any circumstance referred to in Paragraph (3) ceases to apply, the controller shall provide without delay the requested information within the period referred to in Article 53 (3).

(5) In making a decision under Paragraph (3), the controller shall take into account the fundamental rights and legitimate interests of the natural person concerned.

Article 55. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning him or her are being processed, and, where that is the case, access to the said data and information on:

1. the circumstances referred to in Items 3 to 5 of Article 54 (1) and Items 1 to 3 of Article 54 (2);
2. the categories of personal data concerned;
3. the personal data undergoing processing and any available information as to the origin, unless the said information constitutes a secret protected by law.

(2) The controller shall provide the information referred to in Paragraph (1) within the period referred to in Article 53 (3).

(3) The right of access to the data and the information referred to in Paragraph (1) may be wholly or partly restricted taking into account the fundamental rights and legitimate interests of the natural person concerned in the cases referred to in Article 54 (3). Article 54 (4) shall apply in such cases.

(4) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (3), the controller shall inform the data subject in writing within the period referred to in Article 53 (3) of any refusal or restriction of access and of the reasons for the refusal or the restriction. Such information may be omitted where the provision would undermine a purpose under Article 54 (3). The controller shall inform the data subject of the right to lodge a complaint with the Commission or, respectively, with the Inspectorate, or to seek a judicial remedy.

(5) The controller shall document the factual or legal reasons on which the decision is based. That information shall be made available to the Commission or, respectively, to the Inspectorate.

Article 56. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the controller the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning him or her. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, the data subject shall have the right to have incomplete personal data completed, including by means of providing a supplementary statement.

(2) The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the controller the erasure of personal data concerning him or her where the processing infringes the provisions of Article 45, 49 or 51 or where the personal data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation of the controller.

(3) The controller shall rectify or complete the data under Paragraph (1) or shall erase the data in the cases under Paragraph (2) within the period referred to in Article 53 (3).

(4) The controller shall restrict the processing of the personal data without erasing them where:

1. the accuracy of the personal data is contested by the data subject and this cannot be ascertained, or

2. the personal data must be maintained for the purposes of evidence.

(5) In the cases referred to in Item 1 of Paragraph (4), the controller shall inform the data subject before lifting the restriction of processing.

(6) Rectification, completion, erasure or restriction of the processing of personal data may be refused, taking account of the fundamental rights and legitimate interests of the natural person concerned in the cases referred to in Article 54 (3). Article 54 (4) shall apply in such cases. The controller shall inform the data subject in writing of the refusal and of the reasons for the said refusal within the period referred to in Article 53 (3).

(7) The controller may omit to inform the data subject of the refusal under Paragraph (6) in the cases referred to in Article 54 (3), with Article 54 (4) and (5) applying accordingly.

(8) The controller shall inform the data subject of the right to lodge a complaint with the Commission or, respectively, with the Inspectorate and to seek a judicial remedy.

(9) The controller shall communicate the rectification of inaccurate data to the competent authority from which the said data were received.

(10) Where personal data have been rectified, completed, erased or the processing has been restricted, the controller shall notify the recipient of the said data, and the said recipients shall accordingly rectify, complete, erase or restrict processing of the said data.

Article 57. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) In the cases referred to in Article 54 (3), Article 55 (3) and (4) and Article 56 (6) and (7), the data subject may exercise the rights through the Commission or, respectively, through the Inspectorate. In such cases, the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, shall verify the lawfulness of the refusal.

(2) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (1), the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, shall inform the data subject at least that all necessary verifications or consultations have taken place and of the right of the data subject to seek a judicial remedy.

Article 58. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) The exercise of the rights referred to in Articles 54, 55 and 56, where the personal data are contained in a judicial decision or record or case file prepared in the course of criminal proceedings, shall be without prejudice and may not be contrary to the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code.

Section III

Data Controller and Processor (New, SG No 17 of 2019)

Article 59. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The data controller, taking into account the nature, scope, context and purposes of processing as well as the risks of varying likelihood and severity for the rights and freedoms of natural persons, shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure and to be able to demonstrate that processing is performed in accordance with this Act. Those measures shall be reviewed and updated where necessary.

(2) Where proportionate in relation to processing activities, the measures referred to in Paragraph (1) shall include the implementation of appropriate data protection policies by the controller.

(3) By measures referred to in Paragraph (1), the controller shall ensure the protection of personal data by design, taking into account the state of the art, the cost of implementation and the nature, scope, context and purposes of processing, as well as the risks for rights and freedoms of natural persons posed by the processing. The measures must comply with the requirements of Article 45, they shall be planned at the time of the determination of the means for processing of personal data and shall be implemented at the time of the processing itself. Such measures may include pseudonymisation, data minimisation and integrating the necessary safeguards into the processing of personal data.

(4) By measures referred to in Paragraph (1), the controller shall ensure that, by default, only personal data which are necessary for each specific purpose of the processing are processed. That obligation shall apply to the amount of personal data collected, the extent of their processing, the period of the storage and the accessibility. Such measures shall ensure that by default personal data are not made accessible without the intervention of the natural person to an indefinite number of natural persons.

Article 60. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) Where two or more controllers jointly determine the purposes and means of processing, they shall be joint controllers.

(2) The joint controllers referred to in Paragraph (1) shall in a transparent manner determine the rights and duties under this Chapter, in particular as regards the exercising of the rights of the data subject and the providing of the information under the procedure of Article 54 by means of joint rules, unless the rights and duties are provided for in Union law or in the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria. The rules shall designate a contact point for data subjects, and the joint controllers may indicate one of the said controllers to act as a single contact point.

(3) Irrespective of the condition laid down in the rules referred to in Paragraph (1), the data subject may exercise the rights under this Chapter in respect of each of the controllers referred to in Paragraph (1).

Article 61. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) A data controller may entrust processing of personal data on behalf of the said controller only to processors providing sufficient guarantees to implement appropriate technical and organisational measures in such a manner that the processing will meet the requirements of this Chapter and ensure the protection of the rights of the data subject.

(2) The processor may not engage another processor for processing without prior specific or general written authorisation of the controller under Paragraph (1). In the case of general written authorisation, the processor shall inform the controller of any intended changes concerning the addition or replacement of other processors, and the controller shall have the opportunity to object to such changes.

(3) The processing by the processor shall be governed by a contract or other legal act under Union law or the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria, that is binding on the processor with regard to the controller referred to in Paragraph (1) and that sets out the subject-matter and duration of the processing, the nature and purpose of the processing, the type of personal data and categories of data subjects, and the obligations and rights of the controller. The said contract or other legal act shall stipulate, in particular, that the processor:

1. acts only on instructions from the controller;
2. ensures that persons authorised to process the personal data have committed themselves to confidentiality or are under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality;
3. assists the controller by any appropriate means to ensure respect for the rights of the data subject;
4. at the choice of the controller, deletes or returns all the personal data to the controller after the end of the provision of data processing services, and deletes existing copies unless Union law or the law of the Republic of Bulgaria requires storage of the personal data;
5. makes available to the controller all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with this Article;
6. complies with the conditions referred to in Items 1 to 6 and in Paragraph (2) for engaging another processor.

(4) The contract or the other legal act referred to in Paragraph (3) shall be in writing, including in electronic form.

(5) Where a processor determines, in infringement of the rules of this Chapter, the purposes and means of processing, the said processor shall be considered to be a data controller in respect of that processing.

(6) The processor and any person acting under the authority or under the authority of the controller referred to in Paragraph (1) shall not process the said data except on instructions from the controller, unless the conditions and procedure for the processing are provided for in Union law or in the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria.

Article 62. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The data controller shall maintain a record of the categories of personal data processing activities which shall contain:

1. the name and contact details of the controller and, where applicable, the joint controllers and the data protection officer;
2. the purposes of the processing of personal data;
3. the categories of recipients to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed including recipients in third countries or international organisations;
4. a description of the categories of data subject and of the categories of personal data;
5. where applicable, information on whether profile is used;
6. where applicable, the categories of transfers of personal data to a third country or an international organisation;
7. the legal basis for the processing operation, including transfers, for which the personal data are intended;
8. where possible, the envisaged time limits for erasure of the different categories of data;

9. where possible, a general description of the technical and organisational security measures referred to in Article 66.

(2) The processor shall maintain a record of the categories of personal data processing activities carried out on behalf of a controller, containing:

1. the name and contact details of the processor or processors, of each data controller on behalf of which the processor is acting, and, where applicable, of the data protection officer;

2. the categories of processing of personal data carried out on behalf of each controller;

3. where applicable, transfers of personal data to a third country or an international organisation where explicitly instructed to do so by the controller, including the identification of the said third country or international organisation;

4. where possible, a general description of the technical and organisational security measures referred to in Article 66.

(3) The records referred to in Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be in writing, including in electronic form.

(4) The controller and the processor shall make the records available to the Commission or, respectively, to the Inspectorate on request.

Article 63. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) Logs shall be kept in the automated processing systems maintained by the controller and the processor for at least the following processing operations: collection, alteration, consultation, disclosure including transfers, combination and erasure.

(2) The logs of consultation or disclosure of data under Paragraph (1) must make it possible to establish the justification, date and time of such operations and, as far as possible, the identification of the person who consulted or disclosed personal data, and the identity of the recipients of such personal data.

(3) The logs referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be used solely for the verification of the lawfulness of the processing, self-monitoring, for ensuring data integrity and data security and criminal proceedings.

(4) The data controller shall establish appropriate time limits for storage, including archiving of the logs referred to in Paragraph (1).

(5) The controller and the processor shall make the logs referred to in Paragraph (1) available to the Commission or, respectively, to the Inspectorate on request.

Article 64. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) Where a type of processing in particular such using new technologies, and taking into account the nature, scope, context and purposes of the processing, is likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of natural persons, the data controller shall, prior to the processing, carry out an assessment of the impact of the envisaged processing operations on the protection of personal data.

(2) The assessment referred to in Paragraph (1) shall contain at least a general description of the envisaged processing operations, an assessment of the risks to the rights and freedoms of data subjects, the measures envisaged to address the risks, safeguards, security measures and mechanisms to ensure the protection of personal data and to demonstrate compliance with this Chapter taking into account the rights and legitimate interests of data subjects and other persons concerned.

Article 65. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The controller or processor shall consult the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, prior to processing which shall form part of a new filing system to be created, where:

1. an impact assessment under Article 64 indicates that the processing would result in a high risk despite the measures taken by the controller to mitigate the risk, or

2. the type of processing, in particular, where using new technologies, mechanisms or procedures, involves a high risk to the rights and freedoms of data subjects.

(2) The Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, shall be consulted during the preparation of draft laws and draft statutory instruments of secondary legislation containing measures relating to processing.

(3) The Commission shall adopt and publish a list of the processing operations which are subject to mandatory prior consultation under Paragraph (1). The Inspectorate shall apply the list referred to in sentence one accordingly.

(4) The controller shall provide the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, with the data protection impact assessment under Article 64 and, on request, with any other information to allow the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, to make an assessment of the compliance of the processing and in particular of the risks for the protection of personal data of the data subject and of the related safeguards for the said protection.

(5) Where the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, is of the opinion that the intended processing referred to in Paragraph (1) would infringe the provisions of this Chapter, in particular where the controller has insufficiently identified or mitigated the risk, the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, shall provide, within a period of up to six weeks of receipt of the request for consultation, written advice to the controller and, where applicable, to the processor. That period may be extended by a month, taking into account the complexity of the intended processing. The Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, shall inform the controller and, where applicable, the processor, of any such extension of the period within up to one month of receipt of the request for consultation together with the reasons for the delay.

(6) The provision of written advice under Paragraph (5) shall be without prejudice to the possibility of the Commission or, respectively, of the Inspectorate, to exercise the powers referred to in Article 80 in respect of the controller or processor.

Article 66. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The controller and the processor, taking into account the state of the art, the costs of implementation and the nature, scope, context and purposes of the processing as well as the risks for the rights and freedoms of natural persons, shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk, in particular as regards the processing of the categories of personal data referred to in Article 51 (1).

(2) In respect of automated processing, the controller or processor, following an evaluation of the risks, shall implement measures designed to:

1. equipment access control: deny unauthorised persons access to processing equipment used for processing of personal data;

2. data media control: prevent the unauthorised reading, copying, modification or removal of data media;

3. storage control: prevent the unauthorised input of personal data and the unauthorised inspection, modification or deletion of stored personal data;

4. user control: prevent the use of automated processing systems by unauthorised persons using data communication equipment;

5. data access control: ensure that persons authorised to use an automated processing system have access only to the personal data covered by their access authorisation;

6. communication control: ensure that it is possible to verify and establish the bodies to which personal data have been or may be transmitted or made available using data communication equipment;

7. input control: ensure that it is subsequently possible to verify and establish which personal data have been input into automated processing systems and when and by whom the personal data were input;

8. transport control: prevent the unauthorised reading, copying, modification or deletion of personal data during transfers of personal data or during transportation of data media;

9. recovery: ensure that installed systems may, in the case of interruption, be restored;

10. reliability: ensure that the functions of the system perform and that the appearance of faults in the functions is reported;

11. integrity: ensure that stored personal data cannot be corrupted by means of a malfunctioning of the system.

Article 67. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) In the case of a personal data breach which is likely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of data subjects, the controller shall notify the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, of the said breach without undue delay but not later than 72 hours after having become aware of the said breach. Where the notification is made after the time limit referred to in sentence one, the said notification shall state reasons for the delay.

(2) The processor shall notify the controller without undue delay but not later than 72 hours after having become aware of a personal data breach.

(3) The notification referred to in Paragraph (1) shall contain at least:

1. a description of the personal data breach including, where possible, the categories and approximate number of data subjects concerned and the categories and approximate number of personal data records concerned;

2. the name and contact details of the data protection officer or other contact point where more information can be obtained;

3. a description of the likely consequences of the personal data breach;

4. a description of the measures taken or proposed to be taken by the controller to address the personal data breach, including, where appropriate, measures to mitigate its possible adverse effects.

(4) Where it is not possible to provide the information at the same time, the information may be provided in phases without undue further delay.

(5) The controller shall document any personal data breaches referred to in Paragraph (1), comprising the facts relating to the breach, the effects and the remedial action taken.

(6) Where the personal data breach involves personal data that have been transmitted by or to the controller of another Member State of the European Union, the information referred to in Paragraph (3) shall be communicated to the said controller without undue delay but not later than seven days after the breach has been ascertained.

Article 68. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) Where the personal data security breach referred to in Article 67 (1) is likely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of data subjects, the data controller shall notify the data subject as well of the breach within seven days after the breach has been ascertained.

(2) The notification under Paragraph (1) shall describe in clear and plain language the personal data breach and shall contain at least the information and measures referred to in Items 2, 3 and 4 of Article 67 (3).

(3) The data subject shall not be notified of a breach referred to in Paragraph (1) where any of the following conditions are met:

1. the controller has implemented appropriate technical and organisational protection measures, and those measures were applied to the personal data affected by the breach, in particular those that render the personal data unintelligible to any person who does not have the right to access the said data, such as encryption;

2. the controller has taken subsequent measures which ensure that the high risk to the rights and freedoms of data subjects is no longer likely to materialise;

3. the notification would involve a disproportionate effort; in such a case, there shall instead be a public communication or a similar measure whereby the data subjects are informed in an equally effective manner.

(4) Where the controller has not notified the data subject of the personal data security breach referred to in Paragraph (1), the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, having considered the likelihood of the breach resulting in a high risk, may require the controller to notify the data subject.

(5) In the cases referred to in Article 54 (3), the controller may omit to notify the data subject of the breach referred to in Paragraph (1), may notify the said subject after the time limit referred to in Paragraph (1), and may restrict the information referred to in Paragraph (2).

Article 69. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The data controller shall designate a data protection officer on the basis of his or her professional qualities and, in particular, his or her expert knowledge of personal data protection law and practice and ability to fulfil the tasks referred to in Article 70.

(2) A single data protection officer may be designated for several controllers, taking account of the organisational structure and size of the said controllers.

(3) The controller shall make public by any appropriate means the contact details of the data protection officer and shall notify the Commission under the procedure of Article 25b.

(4) The data protection officers who are designated by the judicial authorities shall not fulfil the tasks referred to in Article 70 when personal data are processed for the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1) by the court, the prosecuting magistracy and the investigating authorities when acting in the judicial capacity .

Article 70. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The data controller shall ensure that the data protection officer is involved, properly and in a timely manner, in addressing all issues which relate to the protection of personal data.

(2) The controller shall entrust the data protection officer at least with the following tasks:

1. to inform and advise the controller and the employees who carry out processing of the obligations under this Act and in accordance with other statutory requirements for personal data protection;

2. to monitor compliance with this Act and with other statutory requirements for personal data protection and with the policies of the controller or processor in relation to the protection of personal data, including the assignment of responsibilities, awareness-raising and training of staff involved in processing operations, and the related audits;

3. to provide advice where requested as regards the data protection impact assessment under Article 64 and monitor the performance of the said assessment;

4. to cooperate with the Commission or, respectively, with the Inspectorate;

5. to act as the contact point for the Commission, including for the purposes of the prior consultation referred to in Article 65, and to consult, where appropriate, the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, with regard to matters concerning personal data processing.

(3) The controller shall provide technical and organisational support to the data protection officer in carrying out the activity, including by providing the necessary resources, access to personal data and processing operations, and to maintain the expert knowledge of the said officer.

Article 71. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) The competent authorities shall put in place appropriate procedures enabling the staff to report, directly and confidentially, any infringements under this Chapter to the competent administrative unit within the structure of the controller or of the Commission, respectively, of the Inspectorate.

Section IV

Transfers of Personal Data to Third Countries or International Organisations (New, SG No 17 of 2019)

Article 72. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) A competent authority may transfer personal data which are undergoing processing or are intended for processing after transfer to a third country or to an international organisation including for onward transfers to another third country or international organisation provided that the transfer takes place in compliance with this Act and all of the following conditions are fulfilled:

1. the transfer is necessary for the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1);

2. the personal data are transferred to a controller in a third country or international organisation that is an authority competent for the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1);

3. where personal data received from another Member State of the European Union are transmitted, that Member State has given its prior authorisation to the transfer in accordance with its national law;

4. where:

(a) the European Commission has adopted a decision to the effect that the third country, territory or one or more specified sectors in the third country concerned, or the international organisation concerned, ensure an adequate level of protection, or

(b) in the absence of a decision under Littera (a), appropriate safeguards have been provided or exist pursuant to Article 74, or

(c) in the absence of a decision under Littera (a) and of appropriate safeguards under Littera (b), the transfer of the personal data is necessary in the cases referred to in Article 75;

5. in the case of an onward transfer to another third country or international organisation, the competent authority that carried out the original transfer or another competent authority in the Republic of Bulgaria authorises the onward transfer, after taking into due account all relevant factors, including the seriousness of the criminal offence, the purpose for which the personal data was originally transferred and the level of personal data protection in the third country or an international organisation to which personal data are onward transferred.

(2) Transfers of personal data without the prior authorisation by another Member State of the European Union in accordance with Item 3 of Paragraph (3) shall be permitted only if the transfer of the personal data is necessary for the prevention of an immediate and serious threat to public order and security of a Member State of the European Union or a third country or to essential interests of a Member State of the European Union and the prior authorisation cannot be obtained in good time. In such cases, the authority of the Member State of the European Union that provided the personal data, which is competent to give prior authorisation under Item 3 of Paragraph (1), shall be informed.

Article 73. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) Where the European Commission repeals, amends or suspend any decision referred to in Item 4 (a) of Article 72 (1), transfer of personal data to the third country, territory or one or more specified sectors in the third country concerned, or the international organisation concerned, may take place under the conditions of Articles 74 and 75.

Article 74. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) In the absence of a decision of the European Commission under Item 4 (a) of Article 72 (1), a transfer of personal data to a third country or an international organisation may take place where:

1. appropriate safeguards with regard to the protection of personal data are provided for in the legislation of the third country or in the statute of the international organisation, or in an international treaty which has entered into force and to which the Republic of Bulgaria is a party, or in another legally binding instrument, or

2. the controller has assessed the circumstances related to the transfer of personal data and has determined that appropriate safeguards exist with regard to the protection of personal data.

(2) The controller shall document the transfer in the cases referred to in Item 2 of Paragraph (1), including the date and time of the transfer, information about the receiving competent authority, the justification for the transfer and the personal data transferred.

(3) The controller shall inform the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, of the categories of transfers under Item 2 of Paragraph (1) and, on request, shall make the documentation referred to in Paragraph (2) available to the Commission or, respectively, to the Inspectorate.

Article 75. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) In the absence of a decision of the European Commission under Item 4 (a) of Article 72 (1) or of appropriate safeguards pursuant to Article 74, a transfer of personal data to a third country or an international organisation may take place only if the transfer is necessary:

1. in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject or another person;

2. to safeguard legitimate interests of the data subject, where the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria so provides;

3. for the prevention of an immediate and serious threat to public order and security of a Member State of the European Union or a third country;

4. in individual cases for the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1), or

5. in an individual case for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims relating to the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1).

(2) Personal data may not be transferred if the transferring competent authority determines that fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject override the public interest in the transfer under Items 4 and 5 of Paragraph (1).

(3) Any transfer referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be documented and the documentation shall be made available to the Commission or, respectively, to the Inspectorate on request, including the date and time of the transfer, information about the receiving competent authority, the justification for the transfer and the personal data transferred.

Article 76. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) In individual and specific cases, a competent authority may, in the absence of the condition referred to in Item 2 of Article 72 (1) and without prejudice to any international treaty, transfer personal data directly to recipients established in third countries only if the other provisions of this Chapter are complied with and all of the following conditions are fulfilled:

1. unless the data are transferred, a task of the transferring competent authority arising from Union law or from the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria for the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1) cannot be performed, or the performance of the said task would be seriously hindered;

2. the transferring competent authority determines that the fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject do not override the public interest necessitating the transfer in the case at hand;

3. the transferring competent authority considers that the transfer to an authority that is competent for the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1) in the third country is ineffective or inappropriate, in particular because the transfer cannot be achieved in good time;

4. the authority that is competent for the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1) in the third country is informed without undue delay, unless this is ineffective or inappropriate;

5. the transferring competent authority informs the recipient of the specified purpose or purposes for which the personal data are only to be processed by the recipient provided that such processing is necessary.

(2) An international treaty referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be any bilateral or multilateral international agreement in force between Member States of the European Union and third countries in the field of judicial cooperation in criminal matters and police cooperation.

(3) The competent authority transferring the personal data shall document any transfer under Paragraph (1) and shall inform the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, of the said transfer.

Article 77. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) In relation to third countries and international organisations, the Commission shall take appropriate steps to:

1. develop international cooperation mechanisms to facilitate the effective enforcement of legislation for the protection of personal data;

2. provide international mutual assistance in the enforcement of legislation for the protection of personal data, including through notification, complaint referral, investigative assistance and information exchange, subject to appropriate safeguards for the protection of personal data and other fundamental rights and freedoms;

3. engage relevant stakeholders in discussion and activities aimed at furthering international cooperation in the enforcement of legislation for the protection of personal data;

4. promote the exchange and documentation of personal data protection legislation and practice, including on jurisdictional conflicts with third countries.

Section V

Supervision of Compliance with Personal Data Protection Rules. Remedies (New, SG No 17 of 2019)

Article 78. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) Supervision under this Chapter with regard to the processing of personal data for the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1) shall be exercised by the Commission except in the cases referred to in Paragraph (2).

(2) Supervision under this Chapter with regard to the processing of personal data for the purposes referred to in Article 42 (1) by the court, the prosecuting magistracy and the investigating authorities when acting in the judicial capacity shall be exercised by the Inspectorate.

Article 79. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) In exercising supervision under this Chapter, the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, shall perform the following tasks:

1. monitor and enforce the application of the provisions of this Chapter;
2. promote public awareness and understanding of the risks, rules, safeguards and rights in relation to the processing of personal data;
3. raise the awareness of controllers and processors of the obligations;
4. upon request, provide information to any data subject concerning the exercise of the rights and, if necessary, cooperate with the supervisory authorities in other Member States of the European Union to that end;
5. deal with complaints lodged by a data subject under the conditions of Chapter Seven;
6. check the lawfulness of processing in the cases referred to in Article 57 and inform the data subject of the outcome of the check within three months after the infringement has been brought to the attention of the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, or of the reasons why the check has not been carried out;
7. cooperate with other supervisory authorities, including by sharing information, and provide mutual assistance thereto, with a view to ensuring the consistency of application and enforcement of personal data protection rules;
8. conduct investigations in the field of personal data protection, including on the basis of information received from another supervisory authority or other public authority;
9. follow the development of information and communication technologies insofar as they have an impact on the protection of personal data.

(2) In addition to the tasks referred to in Paragraph (1), in exercising supervision under this Chapter the Commission shall furthermore perform the tasks referred to in Article 10 (2) and shall participate in the activities of the European Data Protection Board.

(3) When the tasks referred to in Paragraph (1) are performed, a fee shall not be charged from the data subject and from the data protection officer.

(4) The controller and the processor shall cooperate on request with the Commission or, respectively, with the Inspectorate during the performance of the tasks .

Article 80. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) In exercising supervision under this Chapter, the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, shall have powers:

1. to obtain from the controller or from the processor access to all personal data that are being processed;

2. to obtain from the controller or from the processor all information necessary for the performance of the tasks referred to in Article 79;

3. to issue warnings to a controller or processor that intended processing operations are likely to infringe the provisions of this Chapter;

4. to order the controller or processor to bring data processing operations into compliance with the provisions of this Chapter, including to order the rectification, completion or erasure of personal data or restriction of the processing pursuant to Article 56;

5. to impose a temporary or definitive limitation, including a ban, on data processing;

6. to advise the controller and the processor in accordance with the prior consultation procedure referred to in Article 65;

7. to issue, on its own initiative or on request, opinions on draft laws and other statutory instruments, as well as on administrative measures related to the protection of the personal data of natural persons;

8. to issue, on its own initiative or on request, opinions on issues related to the protection of personal data.

(2) In addition to the powers referred to in Paragraph (1), the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, shall furthermore exercise the powers referred to in Item 2 of Article 10a (2) or, respectively, Item 2 of Article 17a (2).

(3) The Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, may bring an infringement under this Chapter to the attention of the court.

Article 81. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, shall cooperate with the respective supervisory authorities of the other Member States of the European Union, including by means of exchanging information and making and complying with requests to carry out consultations, inspections and investigations. Requests should contain all the necessary information, including the purpose of and reasons for the request. Information exchanged shall be used only for the purpose for which it was requested.

(2) The Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, shall take all appropriate measures required to reply to a request of another supervisory authority without undue delay and no later than one month of receipt of the request.

(3) The Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, may refuse to act on a request under Paragraph (1), stating reasons for the refusal, where:

1. the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, is not competent for the subject-matter of the request or for the measures it is requested to execute, or

2. compliance with the request would infringe the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria or Union law.

(4) The Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, shall inform the requesting supervisory authority of the results or, as the case may be, of the progress of the measures taken in order to respond to the request.

(5) The forms of cooperation and mutual assistance between the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, and the supervisory authorities of other Member States of the European Union and the procedures under which such cooperation and assistance are implemented shall be determined by the rules referred to in Article 9 (2) or, respectively, by the rules referred to in Article 55 (8) of the Judicial System Act.

Article 82. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) In the case of an infringement of the rights under this Chapter, the data subject shall have the remedies and may claim liability for the damage inflicted thereon under the procedure of Chapter Seven.

(2) In the cases referred to in Article 38 (1) and Article 38b (1), the Commission or, respectively, the Inspectorate, shall facilitate the submission of a complaint by a data subject by providing a complaint submission form.

Article 83. (New, SG No 17 of 2019) (1) The data subject shall have the right to mandate a not-for-profit legal person, which has statutory objectives which are in the public interest and is active in the field of protection of the rights and freedoms of natural persons with regard to the protection of their personal data, to lodge a complaint on his or her behalf and to exercise the rights referred to in Article 38 (1) and (6), Article 38b (1), Article 38c (4) and (5) and Article 39 (1) on his or her behalf.

(2) The data subject may not mandate any person referred to in Paragraph (1) to exercise his or her right to receive compensation under Article 39 (2).
